

REMARKS

Please reconsider the present application in view of the above amendments and the following remarks. Applicant thanks the Examiner for carefully considering the present application. Applicant further thanks the Examiner for the courtesies extended in the telephonic Examiner Interviews of November 21, 2006 and November 29, 2006.

I. Disposition of the Claims

Claims 22-39 were pending. By way of this reply, claims 22, 34, and 37 have been amended, and claims 23, 35, and 39 have been canceled without prejudice or disclaimer. No new matter has been added by way of these amendments. Accordingly, claims 22, 24-34, and 36-38 are currently pending.

II. Final Office Action of September 22, 2006

Claims of the present application were previously rejected as being anticipated or obvious at least partly based on U.S. Patent No. 6,356,529 ("Zarom"). See final Office Action of September 22, 2006, pages 2-6. By way of this reply, independent claims 22, 34, and 37 have been amended to clarify the claimed invention. Namely, the amendments clarify that a proxy server (or a method or module) determines whether a wireless computing device can display web page data received by the proxy server (or method or module). If the determination is that the wireless computing device cannot display the received web page data, then on-the-fly transformation occurs as recited in the claims. On the other hand, in Zarom, there is no determination of whether a web browser of a wireless computing device is capable of displaying web page data received at the proxy server. These distinctions were discussed in the Examiner

Interviews of November 21, 2006 and November 29, 2006, and the Examiner indicated that the amendments above, which were previously sent in proposed format, overcome the outstanding § 102 and § 103 rejections. Thus, Applicant respectfully requests a next action in the form of a Notice of Allowance.

III. Conclusion

The Examiner is encouraged to contact the undersigned attorney if it would be beneficial to further advance the prosecution of the application.

Please apply any charges not covered, or any credits, to Deposit Account 19-2555 (Reference No. 24772-05944).

Respectfully Submitted,
